

Pow Wow Camping Schedule Revealed

Chippewa Pow Wow Day Camp, a Torrance Recreation Department program, designed to give children ages 7-11 a chance to participate in outdoor camping activities, will begin the first of five sessions at Torrance Park, 2001 Santa Fe Ave., from July 10 to 14.

Included in the program is instruction in firebuilding, first aid and crafts, plus a field trip to Cabrillo Beach, hiking, singing and a overnight camp-out at the park on the last day of the session.

There are still openings in session number two scheduled for El Retiro Park from July 17 to 21. However, session number four, which returns to El Retiro, is closed.

Openings are available in session number three at El Nido Park, from July 24 to 28. Final session (number five) is slated for Walteria Park from Aug. 7 to 11 and there is still room for additional campers.

Children attending the day camps are asked to bring their lunch the first three days. In addition, it is necessary to contribute a can of vegetables for the famous campers stew served at the fourth day evening meal. Breakfast will be provided on the last day. Camp concludes at 8:30 a.m. on the fifth day. Parents are asked to furnish transportation to and from the day camp and a fee of $6 per session is required.

Registration for the day camp programs may be made at the Joslyn Recreation Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd., from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. For additional program information on day camping, call the Torrance Recreation Center.

Gigantic Independence Fireworks Show Slated

Elaborate set-pieces illuminated in every color of the spectrum will give beauty and dramatic emphasis to the theme of the 35th Annual American Legion Fireworks Spectacular and Thrill-O-Rama, "A salute to the City and County of Los Angeles." The gigantic Independence Day fete is slated for the Los Angeles Coliseum on the evening of July 4.

Following the junior baseball game, grand entry parade, daredevil thrill show, patriotic music and aerial acts, the world's largest display of pyrotechnics will begin at 9 p.m.

The opening set-piece will announce the motif of the patriotic holiday in bold block letters lighted in fiery brilliance — "The American Legion Presents — 'A Salute to the City and County of Los Angeles." Batteries of red, white and blue roman candles will add the appropriate colors of the Glorious Fourth to the scene.

Olvera Street, the historic thoroughfare that provides the modern LA's link to Old California, will authentically be lighted in lines of brilliant fire. The colorful birthplace of El Pueblo as depicted in many hues will be a tribute to the thousands of Mexican Americans, who call LA their home and the USA their country.

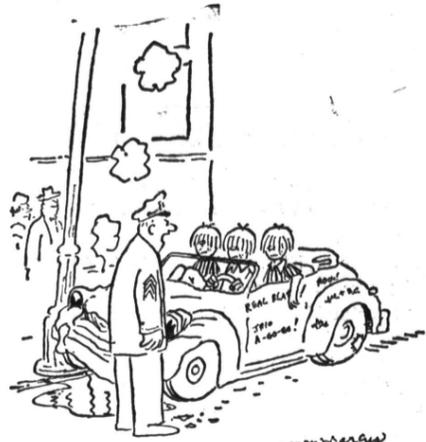

La Brea Tar Pits will be depicted as seen in prehistoric times with the giant dinosaurs moving about with life-like realism.

Los Angeles will be portrayed as "The Sports Capital of the World" as the great U. S. Olympic decathlon champion, Rafer Johnson, is portrayed as he ascended to the heights of athletic endeavor.

The Los Angeles County Fair will be shown in another tableaux featuring the ferris wheel and sky ride. Portraits of Mayor Sam Yorty and Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, who represent the city and county of Los Angeles, will then be projected in bold relief of many hues.

Tickets are available at all Thrifty Drug Stores, mutual agencies, Wallich's Music City Stores, The Coliseum, and Legion offices.

"All right, then. Who was able to see the pole?"
